

Professional Cybersecurity Statement.

I am a highly adaptable and determined cyber security analyst. I place a high value on working to identify and analyze potential risks, threats, and vulnerabilities to security and place a high emphasis on maintaining a strong security posture to help protect sensitive information and mitigate risk.